CHARGE – 1:

That Sri S.Ramachandragiri while working as State Health Transport Officer (Full Additional Charge) Office of the State Health Transport Organization at S.R. Nagar, Hyderabad has shown gross negligence and floated norms in conducting Auction of 443 vehicles as scrap, without involving the committee constituted by the Government in G.O.Ms.No.156, dt.11.02.2009 before and during the auction. The auction was conducted without obtaining clarification from Commissioner, Commercial Tax about rate of Sales Tax & also RTA Officials not involved. As a result Government could not get the estimated amount of Rs.2.228 Crores, and could get only Rs.1.15 Crores as auction amount. An amount of Rs.1.078 Crores thus occurred as loss to Government due to floating of norms.

CHARGE – 2:

That Sri S.Ramachandragiri while working as State Health Transport Officer (Full Additional Charge) Office of the State Health Transport Organization at S.R. Nagar, Hyderabad has failed to give Advertisement broadly in National and State wide papers and also the advertisement were not given in Urdu paper. The auction though held in Hyderabad, and most of the bidders from automobile wing being Muslims could not participate bidding due to lack of information, due to which Government, sustained loss, other wise it could have got more amount due to competition among bidders.

CHARGE – 3:

That Sri S.Ramachandragiri while working as State Health Transport Officer (Full Additional Charge) Office of the State Health Transport Organization at S.R. Nagar, Hyderabad has failed to maintain record properly because it does not show or indicate about the status of unused spare parts and also variation in the names of bidders who deposited the earnest money and in the names of successful bidder.

That Sri S.Ramachandragiri while working as State Health Transport Officer (Full Additional Charge) Office of the State Health Transport Organization at S.R. Nagar, Hyderabad has failed to follow the norms in force and conducted auction, wherein Lot Nos.1 to 18 of auto scrap parts are purchased by only one bidder i.e. Thaiba Enterprises and similarly entire lot from 1 to 19 of tyres and tubes are purchased by one more bidder i.e. Modern Tyres, Hyderabad this raises doubt about the fair, free and transparent conduct of auction.

Thus Sri S.Ramachandragiri while working as State Health Transport Officer (Full Additional Charge) Office of the State Health Transport Organization at S.R. Nagar, Hyderabad has violated the code of conduct which amounts to misconduct and dereliction of duties and unbecoming on the part of a Government servant under Rule (3) of Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964.
